King Kamehameha Day – June 11th

King Kamehameha Day is a public holiday in the state of Hawaii. In December 22, 1871, Kamehameha V first proclaimed that the people would give honor to his grandfather, Kamehameha I, the monarch who first established the unified Kingdom of Hawai‘i—comprising the Hawaiian islands of Ni‘ihau, Kaua‘i, O‘ahu, Moloka‘i, Lana‘i, Kaho‘olawe, Maui and Hawai‘i.

The first observance of the holiday happened in 1872. In 1883 a statue of King Kamehameha was dedicated in Honolulu by King David Kalakaua. There are duplicates of this statue in Emancipation Hall at the Capitol Visitor Center in Washington, D.C. and in Hilo, on the island of Hawai‘i.

King Kamehameha Day was one of the first state holidays recognized by the Governor of Hawai‘i and the Hawaiian State Legislature when Hawai‘i achieved statehood in 1959.

Since 1901, it has been a tradition to drape leis from the statues of the King on the islands. There is also a floral parade that features a young man dressed in a replica of the king's ceremonial cloak and helmet. Other events include Hawaiian music, dance, and traditional arts and crafts. Late 19th century celebrations of Kamehameha Day featured carnivals and fairs, foot races, and horse races.

Today, King Kamehameha Day is treated with elaborate events dating back to ancient Hawai‘i, respecting the cultural traditions that Kamehameha defended. A floral parade is held annually at various locations throughout the state of Hawaii. A favorite floral parade feature is the traditional royal pa‘u riders. They represent a royal court led by a queen on horseback, followed by princesses representing the eight major islands of Hawai‘i and Molokini.

At Kapi‘olani Park on O‘ahu, after the parade, the state holds a Ho‘olaule‘a, a celebration with food and music. Cultural exhibitions are also scattered throughout the park—arts and crafts, games, sports, and other events.

On the Island of Hawaii, there are three floral parades held. There is a King Kamehameha Day Celebration Parade and a Ho‘olaule‘a is held in Kailua Kona on Ali‘i Drive each year; and, like the island of O‘ahu, there is also a lei draping ceremony conducted at the statue of King Kamehameha in Kapaau.

Outside of the state, a similar draping ritual is held at the US Capitol where the King Kamehameha Statue located at this site is also draped with flower leis during a ceremony with federal officials.

President’s Message

Aloha mai kakou:

It was an unforgettable evening celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Kamaaina Club of Orange County Annual Luau, May 4, 2019. The atmosphere at the UFCW Union Hall in Buena Park was glittered with the Spirit of Aloha. As you entered, you were welcome and greeted with an amiable traditional yellow or red gift, a Lei of Aloha. You could feel the mana and kahua o Mali’o (place of happiness) surrounding you. Without a doubt, it established the tenor for a memorable and “good kine fun” occasion and experience.

A successful event represents the aloha and kokua of many people. I wish to begin by expressing my heartfelt mahalo nui loa to both Pam (chairperson) and Frank (assistant) Jones for their untiring energy, time, and dedication to the overall blue print of this important event. To all the committee members for their contribution and furtherance of the general concept. I would also like to convey my sincere gratitude to luau sponsors – State Farm Insurance (Frank Jones), Grove Body Shop, Safelite Auto Glass, 10th Frame Pro Shop, and the many generous donors. To Bill Perry for the production of a remarkable time table video of the 50th Golden Years of the Kamaaina Club of Orange County. To Valerie Gill, for her creative talent and skill on the production of KCOC Commemorative Journal project. A sincere gratitude to all the entertainers and guest artist for your mele and hula performances.

A special acknowledgement is also extended to our guest of honor, Ruth (Kuratani) Matsui for her inspired vision establishing the Kamaaina Club of Orange County in 1969 – E ho’okumu I ka hana hou a e hana I kekahi mua hou (Establish a new beginning and create a new future)

Sincere congratulations and well deserved accolade to our club members: Rose Kauhaahaa (Poi Pounder Award); Pam Jones, Robert “Bobby” Okamura, & Genka Cabatu-Skolnik (Distinguished Service Award); Valerie Gil, Ronnie Skolnik, Kay Tracey (Honorary Seniors); and Dolores “Dee” Lee, Henry “Peanuts” Urada, and Debbie “Pudgie” Rios (Presidential Award).

Our pride and joy salutations to the Scholarship Recipients – Chloe Helenski (Edison High School) and Nicholas Gomez (Fountain Valley High School) – E kulia I ke ‘aki, a hele a ‘olu’olu I ka ‘oi e loa’a mai (Strive for the ultimate and be pleased with the best).

A genuine appreciation goes to everyone who shared their mana’o (thoughts), kokua (support) and faith in the Aloha Spirit for this one moment in time.

E Hoomau maua kealoha,

M.E.Raco, President
Kamaaina Club of Orange County
Vice President’s Column

Aloha

As spring comes to an end, I now look forward to summer which officially begins on Friday, June 21, 2019. When growing up, I was always enthusiastic when summer approached because it meant no school for 3 months and my parents always planned a family vacation. One of my favorite vacations was when my mom, dad, and younger sisters (Nessa, Ronnie, and Yvette), drove cross-country from California to Florida and visited me while I was stationed at Eglin Air Force Base, near Ft Walton Beach, Florida. This vacation was very special because it was the first time I’d ever been away from home and I was homesick. It was the first and only time my family vacationed in Florida and it meant so much having my ‘ohana come and spend their summer vacation with me going up and down the coast of Florida.

50th Anniversary Commemorative Book: Due to the lack of interest in participation with the “Talk Story” articles and people submitting the advance order form to purchase the book, the book WILL NOT be published. I would like to personally send a mahalo to the following ‘ohana who did show their interest in supporting this effort: Ughoc; Jahahn; Kauhaahaa; Nakahira; Princler; Shigematsu; Aiau; Sato; Horita; Mercado; Shoihama, Raco; and, a special thank you to the KCOC Glee Club.

Nominations for club officers for the fiscal year 2019-2020: At the April 2019 general membership meeting, nominations for elected officers was conducted. The nominees are as follows:

- President: Greg Princler
- Treasurer: Pam Jones
- Vice President: Val Gill
- Historian: Aloha Cabatu
- Secretary: Dee Lee
- Sgts-at-Arms: Frank Jones and Henry “Peanuts” Urada

For those who did not attend the April meeting and you know a member who is interested in running for an office and is eligible under Article 5 of the Kamaaina Club Constitution (dtd December 2011), please send your nomination to me by 15 June 2019. If you will not be able to attend the 30 June 2019 general membership meeting to vote, contact me so I can send you an absentee ballot which must be submitted to me no later than 28 June 2019 in order for your vote to count.

Our membership count is now at 254. I’m elated because during the lu’au, several people stopped by and were interested in submitting applications for membership. As they say, “every little bit helps” and as our membership grows, so will our strength. I constantly look forward to having more people join the club so that we can perpetuate “the spirit of Aloha”.

As a reminder, it’s important when you have changes to your contact information (address, email, or phone number); please contact me so I can update the KCOC roster. This really helps us to make it possible for you to continue receiving your monthly ‘Ike Pono ‘Oe or important news information about the club.

I hope all of you have exciting plans for the summer. Although weather watchers call it “June Gloom”, remember, they are describing the weather….not your spirit. June is the beginning of summer which brings sun-filled days of fun, outdoor activities, and good times with your ‘ohana and friends. These are the makings of “moments in time” that you can reflect back on bringing fond memories that will always lift your spirit and put a happy smile on your face.

Aloha and Happy June. Hope each of you had an Amazing Month of May. Celebrating all the Mothers out there and Graduating Class of 2019. With our Annual Club Luau, celebrating our 50th Anniversary.

With that said, I like to share this article that was written for the Club bookmark for Glee Club, that Unfortunately is not going to be made. And since we are on a little break now, thought this would be nice to share.

Music is a big part of the Hawaiian Culture. Its Words, its Melody, its Instruments, and its Hula. Is what makes us who we are. The teachings through songs from past to present and to the future. Is what our history will teach generations now and to who comes in the future.

It started with a few people. Who turned it into group. With Singing and Dancing, performing for so many wonderful organizations and events. Many amazing individuals have joined and have brought with them there own talents and even have introduced and invited others to join.

Through the 50 years, this club has been around. Glee Club is still going strong. Practices Tuesday Evenings at Linbrook Bowl. They also helps with a lot of Fund raisering, Workshops, and wherever its needed. You can always depend on them, giving support.

If you, are interested in joining the Glee Club or like to attend one of our Practices, please contact Yolande Princker st (714) 537-8680 or Connie Paikai (657) 266-0958 for more information. We are always looking for singers to join Glee Club. We Practice on Tuesday Nights at Linbrook Bowl from 7-9. Our email address is kamaainaglee@gmail.com, we look forward to hearing from you.

KCOC Bowling
Betty Katzmann

On May 15 some of the KCOC bowlers participated in the Alley Cats and Wildbunch Tournament at Carter Bowl. At the banquet following the bowling tournament some of the KCOC bowlers were very lucky in the drawings. The big winners I heard were Roger and Patsy Tsuda,, Cathy Poon, Kevin Fujinami, Gil Barcoma and Henry Ura. These lucky people won nice prizes (If I missed other KCOC winners, I'm sorry. In the future I need to take notes at the banquet.)

Up-coming Events:
July 27--(tentative date) OC Senior Men/Women Tournaments.
No Friday nights bowling until Sept. 6.
Until then have a great summer. Betty!

Guess Who
Did you guest last month’s guess who? If your guess Victor Cabatu. Congratulations.
Luau

Aloha everyone - I hope everyone enjoyed our 50th Luau celebration - it was another sell out and again I apologize to those that we had to turn away. Kalani Akui opened up the Oli followed by our special guest Ruth (Kuratani) Matsui who flew in from Hawaii and welcomed everyone. She looked beautiful and was such a celebrity when she walked in she had a long line formed just to say hi. It was a day filled with entertainment by Uncle Lincoln, Ke Aloha O Ka Hula, Kamaaina Glee and Hula Club, Na Kupuna Kapehe, Gary Jung (tribute to Elvis/ Songs from the 50's & 60's) and closing with Lokelani Rhythm of the Islands.

There are so many people that I would like to thank because I truly could not have done it without all the volunteers that were on the committee. Our MC Greg Princler did a great job at keeping the program going on time and filling in the time when the groups were not quite ready - did anyone notice how many outfit changes Greg had? I would like to congratulate Rose Kauhaahaa for receiving the Poi Pounder award - a much over due award and well deserved. This was Rose's last year to cater our Luau - next year she will enjoy the luau watching from her seat. Thank you for your many years of making the food for our Luau. Thanks Candice and Kevin for all the goodies at the pupu table - table looked great! Thank you Kevin Gomez and crew for making the Poke - it was ono. Aloha and your crew did an awesome job at the Bar - I know our Mai Tai's are a popular drink and you were certainly busy all night. Frank the raffles were once again a big hit - we seem to get more and more prizes each year. Thanks Dee and Phillip for selling scrips and for making the program - I don't think you ever took a break - I know you were busy and we even ran out of tickets. Thanks Chriissy for organizing the Honorary Seniors and Amy for helping with the Scholarship winners. Henry (P-nut) for managing the dinner line. Thanks Val for designing our program cover, making our signs, small programs, stage decorations etc. - really appreciate all that you did!!! Bobby O may be retiring as well from making peanuts but hopefully he will supervise next year.

A special thanks to Bill Perry for making our power point - everyone enjoyed seeing the old pictures and for being our photographer for the night. George and Elaine the hall looked great with your stage and table decorations - I know it takes a lot of time to make all your arrangements and we appreciate it. Thanks Jonathan for doing our photo booth the cranes as our background was a great touch for our special event. Thanks to the Sato Ohana, Chrissy, Rhonda, Aloha, George and Val for making the 1000 gold cranes. Thanks Aolani for helping with the Entertainment and for helping our Sound tech with our program. Budgie - thank you for helping with our entertainers and getting them to the stage on time.

I am sorry but I can't list everyones name but I do want to thank all of you that helped set up - I really appreciate it as without you we would never get it all done with the 6 hours they give us to prepare the peanuts, pineapples, food and decorate the room. For all those that helped serve food, pupu, drinks or worked the raffle table - we really appreciate your help and time. A special thanks to all those that donated the great prizes we had - Cathy and Rhonda the Money Lei's are always a big hit. Raco thanks for all your donations and for making our awards for this year's scholars and club award winners.

I hope that everyone was able to catch up with old friends, made new friends and most importantly new memories. That is what the luau is all about is celebrating our club each year with our members and reflecting on our year.

Thank you and I will see you next year ----- Pam

Honorary Seniors

Hello Everyone!

Our 50th Anniversary Luau was unforgettable: elegant gold cranes, beautiful floral centerpieces, lavish greenery, wonderful sounds of friends/family talking with music playing and lovely dancers dancing, ono food/pupus, and delicious mai tais. It was especially great to see Aunty Ruth Kuratani Matsui (she looks fabulous!) and her ohana.

Did you see the slide show? Mahalo to Uncle Bill Perry for not only putting that together, but he also gave each Honorary Senior a copy/dvd! What a fantastic gift!

Guess who won a coveted money lei? No, not me (but I was hoping!) It was the very person who made it, Cathy Poon! Ok, someone tell me the odds of that happening?!

Finally, here’s to another 50 years of friendship and a commitment to the spirit of aloha.

~Chrissy Horita

Thank you KCOC Honorary Seniors for contributing to the raffle prizes:
